- How will you handle conflict or confrontation? Will you deal with it in the moment, or do you need space and time to reflect? If team conflict or disagreement arises, how will you address it? (Consider your personal communication style and preferences and share with your group.)
- How will you provide constructive feedback to each other? (Consider what you need from your teammates when it comes to feedback and share with your team.)

SECTION B – PROJECT PLAN

When you decide on team roles, consider rotating roles for each task or stage of the project. This gives all team members a chance to develop a well-rounded skill set. Common roles might include facilitator, editor, data manager, coordinator, but you can decide on your own roles based on group strengths and the goals of the assignment.

| Team Member      | Principal Roles |
|------------------|-----------------|
| Cort Auger       | Facilitator     |
| Jason Badwal     | Editor          |
| Saad Siddiqui    | Data Manager    |
| Adlene Oudahmane | Coordinator     |
|                  |                 |
|                  |                 |
|                  |                 |

Notes on Team Roles (E.g., Will you rotate roles? Define any roles that are unclear above.)

Role descriptions and/or titles will be updated as project needs become clearer.

Notes on Project Management and Task / Work Plan:

- Meeting dates will be modified as we approach each deadline to fit around each other's schedules.
- Steps will be updated as more information becomes available.

SECTION C – SIGN OFF

By writing your name and student number below, each of you indicates that you agree and commit to the plan developed and ground rules contained in this Team Contract.

If you do not agree with the terms above, do not sign the contract. Instead, bring up your concerns with your team. You can also contact a Teamwork Mentor by sending an email through the course slack. Teamwork Mentors can help you and your team develop ground rules and a plan of action you can all agree to.
